Aggregate data on serious injuries, deaths, and substantiated cases of child abuse that have occurred in child care settings

Licensed Capacity and Injuries in Child Care Settings

Licensed capacity is the point-in-time maximum number of children a provider can legally care for according to their license type. Table 1 shows how many providers had an open license in each license type and what the total aggregate licensed capacity was for each type at the end of Federal Fiscal Year 2020 (September 30, 2020). In addition to licensed providers, legally qualified exempt providers (non-relative only) are also reported.

Licensed child care providers are required by law to complete an Online Injury Report within 24 hours of any injury in which a child received emergency medical attention or has been hospitalized. In Federal Fiscal Year 2020 (October 1, 2019 through September 30, 2020), 878 injuries requiring medical attention or hospitalization were reported (may or may not have been related to licensing violations) by licensed and legally qualified exempt child care providers in Colorado.

Licensed care providers are less than 24-hour programs with varying care based on age and number of children. Home types include family child care home, experienced family child care home, infant/toddler home, large family child care home, and three under two family child care home. Qualified exempt, non-relative are legally licensed exempt providers that accept Colorado Child Care Assistance Program funding.*

Injuries are self-reported by providers, and may not be reflective of all injuries not reported.*

Fatalities in Child Care Settings

For purposes of this report, the number of fatalities reported is based on the Colorado Department of Human Services, Office of Early Childhood child care licensing data, which is more up to date than but not as comprehensive as the Colorado Child Fatality Prevention System (CFPS). The table below displays the number of child fatalities of any cause (n=0) in Federal Fiscal Year 2020 (October 1, 2019 through September 30, 2020).
